

Contents

Preface	v
Acknowledgments	ix
About the Authors	xi
Introduction	xiii
What You Will Find on the Web page	xvi
1 Housing and Paying for an Option Sales Program	1
Building or Leasing Your Own Showroom	1
Model Homes as Design Centers	3
Working with Manufacturers and Trades	6
Outsourcing an Options Program	8
One Size Doesn't Fit All	9
Building the Design Team	13
2 Thinking Like a Retailer	19
Marketing a Design Center	23
Inside the Design Center	25
3 Managing for Greater Option Profit	33
Pricing	36
Goal Setting for Option Sales	41
Sales Tracking	46

Information Technology	46
Inventory Control	49
Design Center Department Report	50
4 Maximizing the Design Center Experience	53
Information Gathering	56
Providing Service	58
After-Contract Changes	63
5 Selling to Customers' Personalities and Values	65
Knowing the Customer	66
Being a Better Listener	75
Feature and Benefit Selling	82
The Power of Suggestive Selling	84
Learn, Practice, and Apply	87
6 Handling Objections and Closing	89
Starting with "No"	89
How to Close a Design Presentation	93
Closing Clues	95
Avoiding Surprises	96
7 Providing Customer Service	97
The Path to Customer Satisfaction	99
Customer Relationship Management	100
Managing Customer Expectations	105
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)	107
Get Personal	109
Customer Service Do's and Don'ts	109
Measure Your Customer Service Prowess	110
Have Customers Grade You	114
A Competitive Edge	114
Conclusion	117
Notes	119
Resources	121
Index	123